Strategic Guide:

Social and Economic Opportunity

Background:

The Human Rights Board (board) reviews the Equal Opportunity Manager's actions and recommendations on discrimination complaints filed under the Human Rights Ordinance, Chapter 111 of the Alachua County Code, and renders determinations on complaints. In coordination with the Manager, the board takes other informational, educational or persuasive actions to implement the purpose and intent of this chapter.

The board is composed of seven members plus one alternate member appointed by the Board of County Commissioners. There are no other applicants for this position. Mr. Kelly is qualified and continues to serve in this seat due to the County's carry-over provision, per the Board's adopted Advisory Boards and Committees Guidelines.
