Background:

In 2022, after being granted a one-year extension of their accreditation status by the NAPSA Accreditation Commission due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Alachua County applied for NAPSA re-accreditation of its pretrial services program operating within the Court Services Department. The current set of accreditation standards was used by Alachua County to do a self-audit, as well as by the NAPSA Accreditation audit team to confirm that Alachua County program requirements were in place, and, during a site visit by the auditors, that confirmed the policies were being practiced as written. On Oct. 4, 2023 the program was officially re-accredited.
