Background:

The Animal Welfare Advisory Committee assists the County and supports the Animal Resources department in promoting the adoption of shelter pets, the welfare of animals, and the importance of the human-animal bond, while serving public interest and benefits the welfare of local animals. The Committee consists of 7 members, each of whom must be residents of Alachua County. Ms. Jenkins has been an integral participant to the Animal Welfare Advisory Committee and is willing to continue to serve. Ms. Jenkins is a resident of Alachua County and fulfills the Committee membership seat as a leader of a local not-for-profit animal welfare organization. If appointed, the term will be for three-year term (September 30, 2026).
