

Alachua County Florida

A Proclamation

Declaring May 29, 2023, as “Memorial Day” in Alachua County, Florida

Whereas, we, as Americans, on this Memorial Day undertake the responsibility to remember our American brothers and sisters, sons and daughters, fathers and mothers who sacrificed their lives for the cause of Freedom and Protection for our future; and

Whereas, by honoring these courageous American heroes, we renew our commitment to upholding the ideals that have made this nation great;

Whereas, the price of America’s peace and freedom has been the service and sacrifice of our all of our men and women in uniform; and

Whereas, many in our community will take this day to honor, remember and appreciate our exceptional Americans who gave the ultimate sacrifice by taking time out to attend a Memorial Day Ceremony, or take an action to honor those who gave all for our freedoms; and

Whereas, we in Alachua County not only remember the sacrifices of those who lost their lives during military service to protect our home, but also honor and console those who still feel this loss personally.

Now, therefore, through the authority vested in me by the Board of County Commissioners of Alachua County, Florida, I do hereby proclaim May 29, 2023 as “Memorial Day” in Alachua County, Florida.

Duly proclaimed this 23rd day of May, A.D., 2023.
