Maximum response length: 2500 characters

☒ Pass ☐ Fail

Project YouthBuild (PYB) is requesting funding support to enclose 850 sq ft of its existing Construction Trades Lab pavilion to create additional indoor conditioned classroom space. Established in 2009, PYB is a 9-month educational, occupational, pre-apprenticeship, and leadership program for young people ages 16 – 24 who have a low income and have dropped out of school. While enrolled in PYB young people have the opportunity to earn their high school diploma, nationally recognized construction and healthcare credentials, and an education award to be used for post-secondary education or trades school. Young people participate in a rigorous leadership program helping prepare them for civic engagement and employment. Lastly, young people spend nearly half of their time completing hands on training renovating affordable housing in the local community.

The anticipated benefits to residents of Alachua County living at or below 150% of the Federal Poverty Level is threefold.

- PYB typically has a waiting list of 30 – 75 young people at any given time and we anticipate this additional classroom and meeting space will allow us to provide services to at least 30 additional young people each year. Currently, young people can wait up to 12 months to receive services due to space limitations.
- In addition, students from PYB will take an active role in completing renovations to the Construction Trades Lab gaining valuable hands on learning opportunities. The renovation project will be led by the PYB Construction Instructor in collaboration with local trades professionals.
- Lastly, there is a significant shortage of trades professionals and qualified Certified Nursing Assistants(CNA) throughout the state. According to data from the Department of Economic Opportunity/Florida Insight, the construction industry is an in-demand occupation and is projected to create 67,123 new jobs from 2022-2030 statewide. UF Health has reported they currently need 300 CNAs to work as Patient Care Assistants in their clinics and hospitals. PYB will be able to prepare more young people for careers in each of these industries with additional space.

Providing more capacity for PYB to provide educational, occupational, pre-apprenticeship and leadership training to young people who have dropped out of school will have provide additional long-term economic, health and wellness, and employment positive impacts for the county as a whole.

13. Please describe how your project will enhance effectiveness and/or efficiency of your agency's service delivery:*

Maximum response length: 2500 characters

☒ Pass ☐ Fail

The Building New Opportunities Initiative (BNOI) will enhance effectiveness and efficiency at Project YouthBuild operationally and increased service capacity. PYB's current campus layout places constraints on academic scheduling, course offerings, provision of onsite mental health and wellness activities and other important supports and services. The addition of 850 square feet of conditioned space will improve our ability to meet the growing needs of the young people we serve.

The new space will open smaller office spaces, so they can be utilized for individual and/or group therapy sessions with licensed mental health therapists. The space will provide the opportunity for a more diverse schedule of classes to occur simultaneously providing young people with a more robust academic and leadership experience. Some classes are currently offered outdoors, weather permitting, and are often impacted by inclement weather resulting in scheduling conflicts. Due to limited space, group activities are often hosted in common areas and are frequently interrupted by students and staff walking through to access various areas of campus. New areas free from distraction will improve content retention and overall outcomes. We will also be able to host community partners more frequently, so young people can take advantage of their services while attending school.

The new space will also allow us to provide intermittent supports and services to young people on our waiting list to help keep them engaged until they are fully enrolled at Project YouthBuild. We anticipate providing short-term intervention programming including, but not limited to academic remediation, interpersonal communication and conflict resolution, professional certifications, employability skills development, parenting, and financial literacy. We are currently unable to accommodate additional young people due to space limitations. Programs will be developed in response to the needs of young people from PYB and the community at large.

The BNOI will help us begin to address a service gap that exists in Alachua County through increased service offerings and capacity. PYB will also offer regularly scheduled evening recreation and leisure opportunities for young people searching for a safe space to connect with mentors and peers.
