Background:

In 2016, the Board of County Commissioners adopted Policy No. 16-31 on the Private Use of County Facilities. The Policy lists facilities available for private uses. The list of facilities is in need of updating and the Policy amended to reflect current or preferred practices for use of County facilities for private uses. In addition, at the direction of the Board, the Policy is being amended to add gun shows as a prohibited activity at County owned facilities. The Policy, as presented, includes (1) updated definitions, (2) modifications to listing of County facilities available for public use, (3) clarification on the reservation process, (4) updates to the rules for use of County facilities, and (5) additional provisions.
