Application for Alachua County Recreation and Open Space Committee

My name is Sarah Brunnig, and I have lived in Alachua for three years. I teach at UF in Food Science and Human Nutrition Department. I appreciate the outdoors and regularly take walks at Sweetwater and around my neighborhood. I ride a bike some and mean to do more. I like Orienteering which is where you wander the woods looking for designated controls – it is a lot of fun. I find swimming at the public pools to be great exercise.

Having sufficient outdoor spaces is important for all members of society and efforts should be made to preserve and protect a variety of natural spaces. In addition, it is very important to provide a variety of recreational activities so that all Alachuans have access to ways to recreate whether that is a park, pool, or indoor facility. As a teacher of nutrition, I know that being physically active is a very big part of health.

Thank you,

Sarah Brunnig

What Contributions do you feel you could make if you were selected to this board?:

positive growth. In my professional journey, my experience as a Marketing Consultant at TeamSlide involved conducting market research and optimizing digital advertising campaigns, contributing to an improvement in click-through rates and enhanced customer loyalty. Additionally, my role as a Nuclear Cybersecurity Intern at NextEra Energy showcased my ability to identify inefficiencies and implement solutions, resulting in improved cybersecurity and more successful inspections. As an Operations Technician at Slice Engineering, I executed proactive maintenance routines, authored technical procedures, and implemented stringent quality control measures, achieving a reduction in downtime and a defect reduction. Currently serving as one of twenty-four Cabinet Directors as the Innovation Academy Cabinet Director in the University of Florida Student Government, I lead a dynamic team in planning and executing events that foster an innovative culture. My role involves advocacy for the unique needs of IA students, resulting in the implementation of new resources and services tailored to their educational experiences. I am a Six Sigma Yellow Belt certified professional, demonstrating my commitment to process improvement and data-driven problem-solving methodologies. Additionally, I have earned a position on the Herbert Wertheim College of Engineering's Dean's List, reflecting my dedication to academic excellence. If selected for the Alachua County's Advisory Boards, I bring a commitment to leveraging my technical skills, strategic mindset, and community-centric approach to contribute effectively. Drawing on my experience attending community political conferences in Washington, DC, I understand the importance of collaborative decision-making and the impact of effective advisory boards on local governance. I am excited about the opportunity to actively contribute to the growth and development of Gainesville and Alachua County. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of serving on the Alachua County's Advisory Boards.

E. Jane Luzar

Biography

Dr. E. Jane Luzar serves as Vice-President of the Friends of Cuscowilla, a 501©3 nonprofit organization. She has responsibilities for communications and oversees the Butterfly Garden at Cuscowilla Nature and Retreat Center. She also serves as the volunteer “Parktographer” for Alachua County Parks and Open Spaces.

Dr. Luzar served as the Founding Dean of the IUPUI Honors College and Professor of Environmental Economics and Policy (2009-2018). As Founding Dean of the vibrant IUPUI Honors College, she led the effort to establish an Honors College that provides a dynamic academic experience to high ability students seeking unique opportunities in an urban research environment. By design, the IUPUI Honors College links students to world class faculty engaged in cutting edge and translational research, creating a community of scholars that will make a difference.

She joined IUPUI from the University of Florida (UF) in 2009, where she served as Associate Dean of the College of Agricultural and Life Sciences for ten years. Dr. Luzar is an experienced administrator with expertise in academic administration, enrollment management, curriculum development, and student success. While at UF, she completed the American Council of Education (ACE) Fellows Program and worked as a Provost Fellow.

Dr. Luzar was employed at Louisiana State University (LSU) as a Professor of Natural Resource Economics for 12 years prior to her employment at Florida. At LSU, she was recognized nationally for excellence in teaching, research, and graduate mentoring. Her research interests include the economics of sustainability, environmental policy, and the economic role of incentives in environmental management.

She holds a B.A. in Anthropology from the University of Oregon, a Master’s Degree in Natural Resource Economics from the University of Kentucky, and a Ph.D. in Natural Resource Economics from Virginia Tech. She is a former Peace Corps Volunteer, serving three years in Liberia, West Africa. Dr. Luzar is originally from Indiana and lives in Gainesville, Florida.
