Background:

Tina Lloyd, the new ACORN Executive Director, has over 20 years of experience in healthcare including 13 years of management in organizations that provide direct healthcare services. She is a long-time rural resident of north central Florida and is very familiar with the local healthcare safety net. For over 50 years, ACORN has provided dental care to Alachua County's neediest residents for reduced or no cost. Located in the more rural community of Brooker, they are a crucial source of care for many who face barriers to care like affordability and transportation. The 11 member board advises the Board of County Commissioners on the health care and medical needs of the low-income residents in Alachua County
