1. Summary of the proposed ordinance (must include a statement of the public purpose, such as serving the public health, safety, morals and welfare):

The ordinance provides additional criteria for the Board of County Commissioners to consider when hearing special exception applications as found in Section 402.113 of the Alachua County Unified Land Development Code (ULDC). The proposed criteria provide further elements for the Board to consider when considering impacts of special exception applications on the general health, safety and welfare of the citizens of Alachua County.

2. An estimate of the direct economic impact of the proposed ordinance on private, for-profit businesses in Alachua County , if any:

- (a) An estimate of direct compliance costs that businesses may reasonably incur;
- (b) Any new charge or fee imposed by the proposed ordinance or for which businesses will be financially responsible; and
- (c) An estimate of the County's regulatory costs, including estimated revenues from any new charges or fees to cover such costs.

There are no new fees resulting from the proposed ordinance and no additional costs will be incurred as a result of approval of this ordinance.

3. Good faith estimate of the number of businesses likely to be impacted by the proposed ordinance:

None

4. Additional information the governing body deems useful (if any):
