Focusing on community engagement and empowerment, the Neighborhood PACT Project is a grassroots initiative aimed at equipping Alachua County neighborhoods with the skills and resources to resolve disputes peacefully, reduce gun violence, and strengthen community bonds. In 2025, our project will focus on supporting Residences at Oakview, a high-risk neighborhood in Gainesville with 80 units and about 240 residents. We will focus our efforts in Oakview because of significant buy-in, collaboration and support from the property owner (Jennison) and the Community Director/ Resident Service Coordinator. We will recruit and train community members to form a Peace Action Community Team (PACT) that can intervene in community conflicts to support a peaceful resolution, facilitate community ...

The Neighborhood PACT Project's creation and training phase lays the foundation for addressing gun violence in Alachua County through a focused approach combining primary and secondary prevention strategies. By equipping community members with conflict resolution and restorative practice skills, the project enhances the neighborhood's ability to prevent violence and intervene before conflicts escalate.

Primary Prevention: The training of PACT members fosters protective factors by equipping residents with the tools to address disputes peacefully and proactively. These trained mediators, embedded within the community, will help de-escalate everyday conflicts and promote dialogue as well as other non-violent strategies, building a culture of trust, safety, and collaboration. By empowering ...
