The Superior Moves for Kids Program is a Primary Prevention to Secondary Prevention Program designed to give youth options and opportunities to prevent them from wanting to use guns for violence. By putting physical tools such as fishing rods from the fishing program or art brushes from the art introduction program to physically going into a recording booth and recording a poem, we will alter the lives and paths of youths entering the program. The leaders of the programs are military Veterans such as myself (Corey Williams -Marine Corps), I will volunteer my time to introduce Art specifically oil painting and poetry. My associate and fellow Veteran (Derrick Foster -Navy) teaches fishing skills and has experience with an annual fish tournament in his home state of Alabama. Mr. Foster ...

15. Describe measurable outcomes for the project*

Pass  Fail

Maximum response length: 2500 characters

I would describe measurable outcomes for this project to be an awareness by the youth that we are trying to reach them. I personally have felt that if I had more help I could help more kids and for twenty years I have just kept plugging away and now there is help and other eyes on this issue I have known about since I was eleven years old.

An older neighborhood kid named Robert was shot and killed in a fight when I was attending Westwood Middle School the first month of school. I grew up with Robert and his death was one of the first but not the last of my friends that would get shot or shot and killed before I graduated high school in 1994. In February 2025 hopefully if funded, area youth will have a future career option as a paid artist or professional angler if they try these ...
