1. Gun Violence Update - For Your Information

CTAC Executive Director Marsha Kiner and Gainesville Gun Violence Intervention Program Manager Brittanny Coleman presented the above item.

Ms. Coleman stated that the steering committee is currently onboarding 4 members the goal is to have 10 members. She advised that the model is to have a city youth steering committee, and the County will have its own steering committee.

Commissioner Wheeler, Commissioner Prizzia, and CTAC Member Certain presented comments.

Chair Cornell recognized Carla Lewis, Kali Blount, and Jarell Whitehead who presented comments.

2. Comprehensive Literacy Needs Assessment Report and Recommendation Overview

Director & Research Scientist UF Lastinger Institute Tyran Butler, Assistant Director UF Lastinger Institute Pam Chalfant, and UF College of Education Mary Bratsch-Hines presented the above item.

The following three recommendations come from the Assessment Report:

- Enhanced Awareness and Communication
- Focused Support
- Expanded Professional Learning

Commissioner Cornell, Commissioner Alford, Commissioner Wheeler, Commissioner Prizzia, CTAC Member Patton, CTAC Member Certain, and CTAC Member Pinkoson presented comments.

Commissioner Prizzia moved the following:

1. The County Commission earmark a budget of at least $250,000 this year from the County to partner with the Children's Trust and the Non-Profit Center for Excellence to work with key literacy organizations, stakeholders in the community, and the School Board to develop a plan for implementation and evaluation of this reform based on recommendations in this needs assessment. Bring back to the Board within 90 days what a map of that plan is and a formal budget by the end of the budget cycle so that if there is more money needed or if there is other funding needed, we can allocate it before the end of the budget cycle.

2. Write a letter to the School Board asking them to adopt the needs assessment and recommendations in this report.

Vice Chair Cornell recognized Carla Lewis, Kali Blount, and Aces in Motion Representative Ann, Anna Hyman, Sunshine Moss, Leah Galione, Taylor Gilfillan, and Carrie Parker Warren who presented comments.

4. Community Foundation (Center for Nonprofit Excellence) Capacity Building

F. Public Comment

There was no one present who wished to address the Board.

G. Commission General Comments and Information Discussion

1. County Commission Comment

Commissioner Wheeler stated she would like the list of young people from Mr Whitehead so that maybe efforts could be made to pair them up with sponsors.

Commissioner Alford stated that a survey went out regarding the need for 24-hour day care. She encouraged all those who receive the survey to take the time to fill it out.

Commissioner Prizzia thanked her fellow Commissioners for their support in these efforts.

Commissioner Cornell stated that he just remembered the unanimous support the concept of creating the Children's Trust received from local leaders and then seeing the turnout for today's meeting just shows the commitment to the children of Alachua County.

2. Children's Trust Comment

CTAC Member Patton thanked the Board for hosting the meeting.

CTAC Member Certain thanked the County for hosting the meeting and being concerned about an issue that is not really under your responsibilities. The Board has been willing to invested time, effort and resources to help the children of Alachua County.

CTAC Member Pinkoson thanked the Board for the funding and the efforts that are being made to invest in the families in Alachua County.

CTAC Member Twombly thanked everyone for the opportunities to collaborate to solve the issues of the community.

H. Adjourn

There being no further business before the Board, the meeting was adjourned at 6:29 p.m.
