Background:

The Human Rights Board makes recommendations to the Equal Opportunity Manager for the enforcement of the Alachua County Human Rights Ordinance. Membership is comprised of seven members and one alternate, each serving three year terms: one member of the Citizen's Disability Advisory Committee; one attorney eligible to practice in the State of Florida; one residential rental manager; one representative of a lending institution; three citizens-at-large and one alternate. This board meets as needed.

Six residents have submitted applications to the Human Rights Board and are qualified to serve. There are four current vacancies for the Human Rights Board. Three of the vacancies are for full member citizen-at-large positions, all with terms ending 02/29/2028. The fourth vacancy is one alternate position with a term ending 01/31/2027.
