Background:

Alachua County Division of Victim Services & Rape Crisis Center within the Department of Community Support Services provides a wide range of services for victims of crime and sexual assault. Services include counseling, court accompaniment, advocacy, and assistance with a variety of physical, social, and emotional needs. The Amendment 12 with the FCASV provides two sources of funds, the General Revenue (GR) and Trust Fund (TF) accounts. The $163,715.00 awarded from GR is used to pay Union County office rent and salary and fringe benefits for 1.5 Victim Advocate Counselors. The TF funding, $45,120.00 is used to fund an additional Victim Advocate Counselor.
