Background:

The Alachua County Victim Services and Rape Crisis Center is funded in part through the General Fund and grant awards from both the Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) administered by the Florida Office of Attorney General and from the Florida Coalition Against Sexual Violence (FCASV). Services are provided in Alachua, Bradford, and Union counties including a 24/7/365 hotline, assistance with relocation, court advocacy and accompaniment, counseling, and assistance with accessing victim compensation programs. The Center has a total of 15 FTE, of which five are supported by the General Fund, nine through grant funding from VOCA and the Florida Coalition Against Sexual Violence and one through funding from the City of Gainesville. Section 1.R (page 4 of 24) of the contract includes a provision regarding Patents, Copyrights, and Royalties of which any intellectual property created under the agreement become the property of the State of Florida in conflict with the Alachua County Policy on Intellectual Property.
