The County Attorney seeks authority to initiate a small claims action against former Alachua County Fire Rescue employee, Jeremiah Rogan, II. During Mr. Rogan's employment, Alachua County paid his tuition to attend a certification course related to his position. Mr. Rogan agreed, in writing, to repay the tuition costs to Alachua County (on a pro rata basis), if he failed to remain an active employee of Alachua County Fire Rescue for at least two years after receiving his certification. Mr. Rogan had not fulfilled that commitment at the time of his separation from Alachua County, and currently owes $1,872.26. After several communications with Mr. Rogan, wherein Alachua County offered to accept monthly payments, Mr. Rogan has not complied, and the amount remains outstanding.
